

---

PRESENTERS:
MIKELLA RICHARDS & MOSTAFA
MAHMOUD

Table of Contents

---

What is the Human Library?

The Significance at UWE

Structure of the Human Library

Organization on the Day

Getting our Human Books

Supporting our Human Books

Challenges

Future Plans

What is the Human Library?

---

- Where it all started?
- Aim
- Method

The Significance at UWE

---

- UWE Bristol's values
- Create a "safe space" understanding for the library

Structure of our Human Library

Location: main foyer of Frenchay library

Time: 12:00-14:00

Layout: flexible discussion spaces

Organization on the Day

---

- Put up promotional banner
- Print guidelines & sample questions
- Sign-in sheets (three slots per human book)

Interaction between human books & readers:

- 15-20 minutes per reader (flexible)

First Phase: (Getting the Human Books)

---

- Reach out to lecturers, relevant student societies and staff networks
- Put up signage

LGBT History Month: Human Library

We are recruiting 'Human Books' for our upcoming Human Library event on Wednesday 26 February.

If you are LGBTQI+ and would like answer questions to help others understand your lived experience, please get in touch with us by Wednesday 19 February.

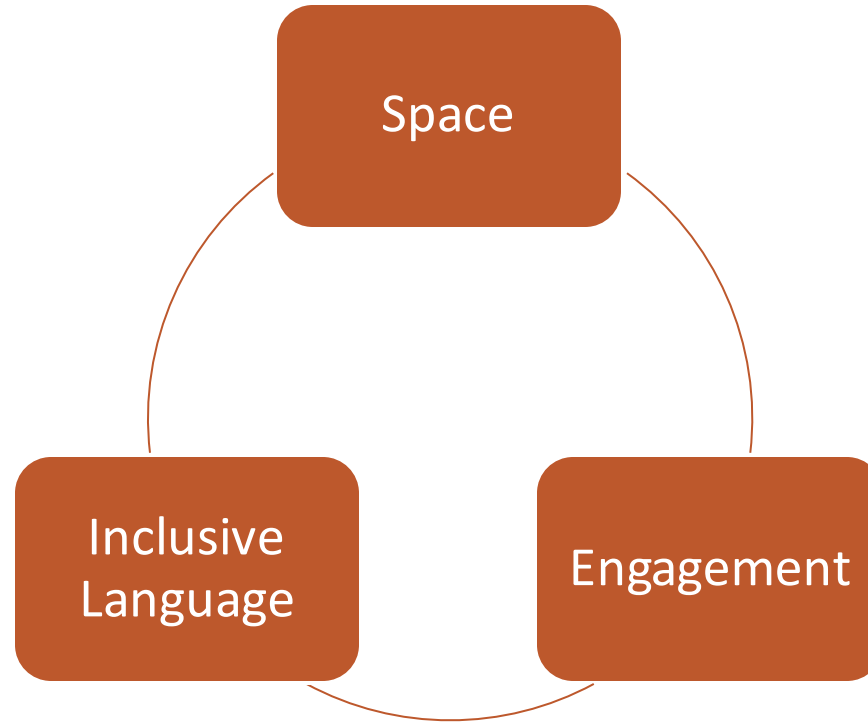

Contact:
Mikella.Richards@uwe.ac.uk

Second Phase: (Supporting the Human Books)

---

- Send overview, guidelines, and sample questions
- Follow-up emails
- Promotional videos

Challenges

Future Ideas

---

March: Women's History Month

April: Students Who Are Carers

May: Mental Health
Awareness

ANY QUESTIONS?

---